Any threat to break such an order, or any breach of it, can be certified to the High Court or Court of Session under section 36 of the Inquiries Act, which will deal with it as though the breach had occurred in proceedings before that court, and may be punishable by a fine or committal to prison.

In exercise of the power, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

The name and address of Witness W2202, the name of her husband who died, and the names of any other member of the witness’ family and any other identifying information (such as the witness’s image or a description of their appearance), cannot be disclosed or published in any form, unless express permission is given by the Chair of the Inquiry, or the Solicitor to the Inquiry acting on his behalf.
2. Witness W2202 must be referred to only as ‘Mrs AD’.
2. This Order remains in force for the duration of the Inquiry and at all times thereafter, unless otherwise ordered.
3. The Chair of the Inquiry may vary or revoke this Order by making a further order during the course of the Inquiry.
